

pan the flute magazine

3 News

BFS Convention 2008 preview. Council news.
Chris Norman workshop. National Flute
Choir. Letter to the editor. New faces: Alena Lugovkina.

13 Early recordings and the flute repertoire

Susan Nelson discusses early acoustic flute recordings in an article linked to the BFS website, where you can download the actual recordings.

23 Eva Kingma's quarter-tone flute

Carla Rees talks to this most innovative flute maker.

31 Emmanuel Pahud

Carla Rees on the phenomenal first flute in the Berlin Philharmonic.

37 How flutes are made: 2

In this continuing series, Jim Phelan describes the making of the keys.

41 Swansea, Paris and London: the story of Frederic Griffith

Jessica Raposo tells the story of the Welsh flute player who studied in Paris with Taffanel before becoming one of the leading flute players in London.

47 Why join a trade union?

In the first of a series on professional associations, Diane Baxter makes a case for the Musicians' Union.

51 Reviews

CDs, books and music—a wealth of great gift ideas.

65 Obituaries

Clifford Benson. Sebastian Bell.

70 The small print

Council and officers of the BFS. Local area representatives. The Association of Flute Traders. Announcements and small advertisements. Membership information.
Index of advertisers.

72 The Last Word...

Elizabeth Barrett Browning on the great god Pan.